TEEN CALENDAR OF PROGRAMS AND EVENTS

NOVEMBER 1996

Programs marked with an asterisk (*) are funded by the Friends of the San Francisco Public Library.

Friday, November 1 - 12:00 noon and 2:00 p.m.

HIGH SCHOOL SCREENING: Caught in the Crossfire - Alice Ray, Farah Dews, Jacques Bronson & Julia Kwan - A shooting battle in front of their high school forces students to confront race, class and gender based stereotypes. Created in collaboration with local teens, and set against a background of real events that happened in 1993, the film is by turns funny and disturbing, energized by the stylized characters whose harsh realities have made them into young realists who have buried hope but not lost it. As they learn to face and admit their feelings, they reveal the enduring spirit of humans to push forward, adapt and survive. (1995, 16mm, 41 minutes) plus Shorts (to be advised). Admission is free, advance registration advised, call 415-552-FILM. Screening coincides with a donation of 30 VHS copies of the film to the library system by the Film Arts Foundation.
